

AN OPEN LETTER!

It is really amusing to read the clothing advertisements nowadays; one would really think that goods have no value at all, but as the customers say, you fellows advertise so much, make such a big blow in the papers, take it all up for your advertising purposes, so one can't read nothing but cheap clothing, and when we come to the stores you haven't got one-half the things you say you have. Now, there is no doubt that there is a great deal of truth in your assertions, but, My DEAR MR. PUBLIC, there is a certain kind of clothing that has to be advertised, and that very largely; a good article always does its own work, if sold at the right figures; one need not take a whole side of a paper to inform the public such facts.

INVESTIGATE! Don't buy one dollar's worth of Clothing, don't buy a nickel's worth of Clothing until you have seen our Mammoth Stock of Men's, Boys', Youth's and Children's fine outlay on our counters. They are what the trade call creme de la creme of High Art Ready-made Clothes. PRICES, AND SUCH PRICES! Thousands and thousands of dollars' worth of stock offered for sale.

READ! READ! READ! LOOK AND THEN BUY AT

E. M. KAHN & CO. E. M. KAHN & CO. E. M. KAHN & CO.

Five hundred Men's Pants at $2.50, worth $3.50. Two hundred Men's Suits at $10, every one of them worth $13.50. Five hundred Men's Overcoats to select from, and prices that are perfect paralyzers to the clothiers of this city. Mind ye, won't sell them to any one but our customers, and only at retail. This rule will be strictly carried out. No clothiers need apply. 100 at $5, 100 at $7, 300 at $10, 200 at $15, 100 at $20, and if you wear a silk-liner that will make you feel as if you were a Vanderbilt, take a peep at our English Meltons and Kerseys for $25 that can't be duplicated for less than $65 at the tailors.

A BOLD DASH:

We have just placed in stock a line of Boys' Suits, fresh from the latest clothing manufacturers in the country, with orders to sell, and if you don't think we are carrying on the idea, just step in at E. M. KAHN & CO.'S any day and see them move. 500 Boys' Suits, $2.50 to $5.00; 300 Boys' Suits, $3.50 to $5.00; 200 Boys' Suits, $3.75. We have them still higher in price, but there are only a few of our finest. You see we don't want to take up the whole side of a newspaper, but we want you to understand that we are here and mean to stay until the time comes when our old and the new customers are daily visiting our store, where the tried and true motto of fair dealing has won for us the success that has enabled us to live among you to many years.

E. M. Kahn & Co.

WE HAVE PROMISED A SENSATION! AND WE HAVE KEPT OUR WORD FAITHFULLY.

As a means of advertising many firms give presents to customers during the holiday season. Such gifts usually consist of some trifling article or in expensive book or picture. Such articles we have given away by the tens of thousands simply to advertise our already famous clothing house.

We have made now a large reduction in prices of Clothing, Hats and Furnishing Goods, and we offer as a Holiday Attraction to every cash purchaser of Fifteen Dollars' worth of Goods a GIFT of a GENUINE WATERBURY WATCH AND CHAIN. These watches are excellent time-keepers, and will give satisfactory service to men as well as boys. Many a man wants a watch, but feels unable to afford one. He must afford Clothes, however, and the watch costs nothing, for the prices are down already. Everybody wants a watch, and what better Christmas Present can be imagined. The Waterbury Watch Company guarantee the watches, and we absolutely guarantee the CLOTHING, HATS AND FURNISHING GOODS.

Men and Boys, both as to quality and prices, against all competition.

PERSONAL.

Mr. W. B. Hancock, a popular tourist of Boston, is in the city.

Little Daisy Morgan is confined to her bed with a sprained shoulder.

Colonel James Toole is well confined to his bed by serious illness.

Master Matt Toole is convalescing from a severe attack of the dangle.

Judge Anson Ralney, of Waxahatchie, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. John T. Ginnocchio, of Fort Worth, was in the city yesterday. He has recovered from the dengue, but is still suffering from a malady of a most vital organ.

Brof. Black's Opera House Sermon. The usual packed house listened to the professor last evening. His subject was the Millionaire. His subject was the Millionaire. His subject was the Millionaire.

Before the sermon he answered five questions that had been propounded to him.

First—As to the original institution of the Sabbath? His reply was that the first authoritative command for its observance was on Sinai.

Second—In reply to the question as to the attitude of the angels at the ascension of the Savior and the different positions assigned them—in one case as sitting and in another part of the Testament as standing—he said that different persons had seen them at different times, hence they may have been sitting when one writer saw them and standing when others noticed their presence.

Third—As to the inquiry why the ascension was not mentioned by more than one evangelist, he denied the fact and quoted from Mark, Luke and John to sustain his assertion.

Fourth—He answered the objections to the subscription over Christ when he was in the cross (that they differed) by stating that there were three of them, in Latin, Greek and Hebrew respectively, and their translation accounted easily for the alleged variations.

St. Patrick's Church. St. Patrick's church has been thoroughly painted anew. The altar yesterday looked very beautiful. Our reporter was pleased to see such a large congregation at 10 o'clock mass. The ladies of the congregation work like beavers. Father Quinn preached ## an eloquent sermon on the 1st judgment, the gospel of the 1st Sunday of advent.

And they shall see the Son of man coming in a cloud with great power and majesty. — Luke, xxi, 27.

Among the awful events which shall characterize the great day of justice he directed his audience and congregation to three leading circumstances:

First—The resurrection of the body.

Second—The manifestation of consciences.

Third—The final divorce which will establish an eternal separation between the elect and the reprobate.

The Rev. Father handled the subject in a masterly manner.

Death of a Young Lady. Miss Mary Phelan died yesterday morning at the residence of her father in this city, Mr. William Phelan, after a brief illness of four days. Her funeral will take place to-day from the church of the Sacred Heart. She will be buried in the Catholic cemetery. Poets and other Illinois papers are requested to copy.

Delightful Music. Last night Meine's band, at their concert hall, fairly surpassed itself in the rendition of their delicious strains.

The "British Patrol" brought down the house, and the hall resounded with spontaneous applause. Dallas has much to boast of, but not by any means the least of its bright possessions is the grand band that discourses music as ravishing as any band in the parks of the great cities.

This musical treasure is noted with warm commendation by every visitor who is treated to its magnificent performances.

Professor Black. Commerce Street church was filled to its utmost capacity last night to hear Professor Black on the "Baptism of the Holy Ghost."

Tonight his subject will be "The Confession," and after the sermon the ordinance of baptism will be administered to several who have previously made confession of their faith.

The Greeks in Constantinople. The Greek riot is by far the largest of all; it is at the same time the least known. The Greeks have enormous power in the country, financially and politically. Quite three-quarters of the Constantinople bankers are Greeks, and the official departments swarm with them. But they keep to them-
